

Minutes of Carbrooke Heritage Group

19th April 2012

Present: Tom and Ros Thurston, Angela Weatherill, Father Peter, Mark Ward, David Saunders

Apologies: Jan Godfrey, Cherrill Saunders, Helen Riley, Rene Smith

Key points:

- Draft constitution. We felt the document did not fully reflect the aims of the group. Peter to look at other documents
- Bank account set up. Need to change name and signatories once we have adopted constitution.
- Angela proposed Michaelmas Fair week-end Sept 29-30. Angela offered to co-ordinate the event to include
  - Display in the church
  - School activities
  - Harvest supper in village hall
  - Village heritage trail
  - Radio Norfolk treasure trail
  - Produce market
  - Harvest service
  - Unveiling of village sign
- Tom reported that the Page Hunton plough will be displayed on a plinth being built by Tony Everett. Time capsule to be included. Suggested items for burial to Nick King
- Jubilee event Sunday 3rd June. Agreed to put on a heritage display in the village hall
- Angela agreed to maintain an archive of newspaper cuttings about the village. The group felt it was important to save articles as the archive for the future
- Tom to investigate cost of interpretation boards. Group to consider content and lay out at next meeting
- Angela reported that there is now a face book page for Carbrooke Heritage
- David to investigate cost of producing heritage calendar for the village
- Future research and possible publications
  - Peter – local buildings
  - Mark – family histories of servicemen on war memorial
  - Mark – graveyard plan
  - Tom – agricultural history
  - David – village school
- David reminded the group of Wayland Heritage meeting on 17th May at Wayland House – talk by Adam Longcroft, Norfolk Historic Buildings Group 7 pm
- Date of next meeting: 24th May in the church
