

A century ago a new planet through the bloom of space appeared - Uranus - his house is "Aquatius", the sign of "Humanity". Hence, the general unrest among the Nations is an indication that a new era is approaching, where Man may reach a still higher development and power of self-expression, or else lapse back to a slavery more degrading than any experience he has ever known before. If the message of the Christ is heard, and the Principles he lived and died for followed, we yet may hear the "song" that brings what we all long for at present, a universal Peace. At this stage dance leads the way, and instance where words failing to express the emotion of the mind, the music of the limbs supplies what is lacking in speech.
